Program Description:

Storytelling is essential to winning trials. Attend this year's Courthouse Series, Telling a Compelling Story, and find out how to effectively use the narrative to persuade the trier of fact. Dynamic live and video demonstrations will showcase a variety of advocacy styles and tips on persuasive storytelling at trial.

Topics include:

- Finding Your Story Through Case Analysis
- Eliciting Your Story Through Testimony and Exhibits
- Previewing Your Story in Your Opening Statement
- Hitting Your Story Home in Closing Argument

The Advocates' Society in conjunction with the Cochrane Law Association, invites you to join us for this year's Courthouse Series: Telling a Compelling Story, presented across the province.

This program contains 2.25 Professionalism Hours and is eligible for up to 1.25 Substantive Hours.

The Advocates' Society has been approved as an Accredited Provider of Professionalism Content by the Law Society of Upper Canada

Feedback from past Courthouse Series participants:

"This program contained significant practical content. I would recommend the series to others."

"The ability to hear from the judiciary was enhanced by the combination of video and live presentations by local counsel."

"The subject matter at this seminar was pertinent and interesting, geared towards practical litigation issues."

"I like that it was held locally. It was affordable and convenient, and offered actual tips on how to fix problems and avoid mishaps."
